This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

NOTE.

As the final pages of this Register are going to press, our country is engaged in its first conflict with a Continental Power, and it is fitting that this opportunity be taken to extend the good wishes of the Society to its numerous members in the army, navy, and volunteer forces of the United States who are in active service against Spain, and to wish them a speedy and safe return to their homes or stations.

The General Society is actively engaged in raising a Patriotic War Fund, to be used for the purpose of showing its devotion to our country.

CONSTITUTION.

PREAMBLE.

Whereas, It is desirable that there should be adequate celebrations commemorative of the events of Colonial History happening from the settlement of Jamestown, Va., May 13, 1607, to the battle of Lexington, April 19, 1775:

Therefore, The Society of Colonial Wars has been instituted to perpetuate the memory of those events, and of the men who, in military, naval, and civil positions of high trust and responsibility, by their acts of counsel, assisted in the establishment, defense, and preservation of the American Colonies, and were in truth the founders of this nation. With this end in view it seeks to collect and preserve manuscripts, rolls, relics, and records; to provide suitable commemorations or memorials relating to the American colonial period, and to inspire in its members the fraternal and patriotic spirit of their forefathers, and in the community, respect and reverence for those whose public services made our freedom and unity possible.

One collateral representative of an ancestor such as above specified, shall be eligible to membership, provided there be no existing lineal descendant, and provided that such person be the oldest collateral representative in the male line, of such ancestor, or has filed with the Secretary-General of the Society written renunciations from all other persons having nearer claims to representation.

No State Society shall adopt any rule of eligibility for membership which shall admit any person not eligible for membership in the General Society.

It shall have jurisdiction to pass upon all questions of eligibility referred to it by the Registrar-General; but shall not otherwise interfere in the regulations or government of any State Society, unless by a plurality vote of the General Assembly, when the surrender of a State charter may be demanded, should an investigation show that such action is necessary for the welfare of the Societies at large. It shall have power to grant charters to States other than those in which the Society is already organized, provided that at least nine persons duly qualified to be members make such application. It shall issue the insignia and the diploma of membership. The Registrar-General shall receive and file all duplicate applications upon which membership has been granted, with a list of all diplomas signed by him, and all documents which the Society may acquire. STATE SECRETARIES.

It shall be competent for the General Council to appoint State Secretaries in States where no State Societies exist, with a view to represent the interest of this Society, and, if authorized to do so, to prepare for the organization of new State Societies. An initiation fee shall not be twice required.

SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS IN THE STATE OF MARYLAND.

The Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Maryland was incorporated at Baltimore, February 28, 1893, and organized on "Colonist Day," March 25th, the two hundred and fifty-ninth anniversary of the landing of the first Maryland Colonists under Leonard Calvert. The first public meeting was held at the Maryland Historical Society's rooms, on St. Cecilia's Day, November 22, 1893, the 260th anniversary of the sailing of the Ark and the Dove from Cowes, Isle of Wight, England, bearing Governor Calvert and his colony to Maryland's shores. The Society holds its Social Courts on November 22d annually, and yearly celebrates the following anniversaries: February 11, George Washington's birthday, O. S.; March 25, The First Landing on Maryland Soil; June 20, The Granting of the Charter of Maryland. At the Fourth Social Court of the Society held at the Hotel Rennert on Nov. 22, 1897, the Society was presented with a superb silver punch bowl weighing 240 oz., eighteen inches in diameter and thirteen inches high, and of pure colonial design.

The Society also has had presented to it a stand of four colors, each six feet by six feet six inches, consisting of the National flag, the flag of the General Society of Colonial Wars, the banner of the Lords' Baltimore, or, as better known, perhaps, the Maryland Flag, and the flag of Great Britain or the Jack flag as adopted by James VII. of Scotland, when he became also James I. of England and united the crowns of Scotland and England. In addition to this the Society also possesses reproductions of the colors carried by the troops of the first ten counties in Maryland in 1694. Eligibility for election to membership in the Society conforms to the requirements of the Constitution of the General Society.

In Memoriam.

4. Henry Stockbridge, died March 11, 1895.

49. Edmund Plowden Jenkins, died July 7, 1896.

Edmund Plowden Jenkins. He was born 1845, and was a son of the late John W. Jenkins, of Charles County, Md., and a grandson of Judge John I. Jenkins, both of whom served the State as Legislators and Senators.

The traditions of his family are associated with the earliest history of this Commonwealth, and he numbered among his ancestors many distinguished Marylanders.

At the time of his death he was paymaster of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, a position which he had held for over twenty years; he was a man of absolute integrity, true to his trusts, great and small, cultured and intellectual. He was held in the highest estimation by the officers of his company and by the business community of Baltimore.

SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS IN THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.

The Society of Colonial Wars in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts was organized April 5, and incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth April 29, 1893.

In 1896 the Society made a pilgrimage to Duxbury. Later, Marblehead was visited. Prizes were awarded for essays on "King Philip's War," with special reference to the events which belong to Worcester County, to pupils of the Worcester schools.

The Fourth General Court and the annual dinner were held at the Hotel Brunswick, Boston, December 21.

A beautiful State society flag was presented to the Society by Mrs. Frances C. Foster of Cambridge.

In 1897 the Society has held monthly courts, excepting in the summer, at which papers of a historical character have been read by members. Prizes have been awarded to pupils of Plymouth County high schools for essays on "The Landing of the Pilgrims in 1620."

A special court was held at Young's Hotel, Boston, in honor of Hon. Thomas F. Bayard, Ambassador to England, and ex-Chancellor-General of the Society. Mr. Bayard made an address.

The Society has been officially represented by its Governor at the presentation of the Bradford Manuscript, the celebration of the Queen's Jubilee in Boston, and the dinner of the Massachusetts societies of the Sons of the American Revolution and the Sons of the Revolution.

A pilgrimage was made on June 17th to the field of the Sudbury fight. A fall field day was passed at Billerica and Bedford Springs.

SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS IN THE STATE OF CONNECTICUT.

The Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Connecticut was chartered April 26, 1893, and incorporated under the State laws, May 21, 1893.

The elegibility rules are those of the General Society with the following restrictions: Legislative service unaccompanied with military record does not constitute a valid claim; the direct ancestor in the male line must have resided in the American Colonies before 1750; collaterals are not admitted.

The first General Court was held at New Haven, December 14, 1893, at which time most of the officers and a council were chosen. An adjourned General Court was held at New Haven, May 26, 1894, the 257th anniversary of the attack by Captain John Mason and his forces on the Pequot Fort in Mistick. At this time the rest of the officers were elected, and the Constitution and By-Laws were adopted by a unanimous vote.

The second General Court was held at New Haven, December 12, 1894.

The third General Court was held at Hartford, May 1, 1895.

The fourth General Court was held at Hartford, May 6, 1896.

The fifth General Court was held at New Haven, May 5, 1897.

The General Court is held on the first Wednesday in May, in commemoration of the first General Court of the Colony of Connecticut, held at Hartford on the first day of May, 1637 (O. S.), at which time the Sovereignty of the Colony was first asserted by the formal Declaration of War against the Nation of the Pequots.

In Memoriam

6 Nathan Gillett, died July 29, 1894.

33 Prof. Daniel Cady Eaton, died June 29, 1895.

66 Rev. Edward Alfred Smith, died Oct. 26, 1895.

104 James Mason Hoppin, Jr., died Jan. 23, 1897.

26 Frederick Plumb Miles, died Feb. 19, 1897.

51 Jonathan S. Curtis, M.D., died March 31, 1897.

108 William Allyn Hungerford, died April 15, 1897.

James Mason Hoppin, Jr., born at Salem, Mass., May 18, 1857; died at New Haven.

He fitted for Yale, leaving that institution before graduation for what he deemed the ampler opportunities for broader culture at Oxford. He received his high degree from that institution 1880. He was a true lover of nature; the silver silence of the snow was music to him; the fierce driving of the storm gave him rest; the companionship of his dog and horse, keen delight.

He was a welcome guest in every circle where he brought naught of discord or strife, contributing only the pleasant, gentle things of life. No member of this society had a wider circle of friends. He took a deep interest in the affairs of the society. To us it seemed that he had everything to live for, and yet, by a mysterious Providence, he was removed not only from our midst but from a family circle which loved him devotedly, from friends and acquaintances who must ever miss him.

Frederick Plumb Miles, testified his warm interest in the society by early joining it and never missing a meeting. His presence, rather than his words, was a valued indorsement; we knew him as a quiet man.

Doctor Jonathan Strong Curtis, in years one of our oldest members, a citizen whose worth was recognized and appreciated, an able and honored physician whose kindly influence was felt with his entrance into the sick-room and remained as a benefaction long after his departure.

William Allyn Hungerford, a recent but enthusiastic member, ready with his strong and agreeable personality to co-operate in whatever tended to advance the interests of the society—a successful merchant in New York City—a forceful man in whatever he undertook.

SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

The Society of Colonial Wars in the District of Columbia was organized May 20, 1893, with a membership of twelve. Incorporated November 17, 1893.

The first General Court was held December 19, 1893, the membership list being then increased to twenty-five.

The second General Court and dinner took place at the Shoreham Hotel to commemorate the 219th anniversary of the Great Swamp fight, December 19, 1894.

The third General Court was held at the Shoreham Hotel December 19, 1895. The membership increased to sixty, with one resignation and one death.

At the General Court held December 19, 1895, the membership clause of the Constitution was amended, so that the eligibility from those "men who rendered conspicuous civil service in a period of warfare" might be more clearly defined, by naming each civil officer from whom eligibility must be claimed.

At a meeting held Sept. 25, 1896, a seal for the Society was adopted. The "Collateral Clause" was stricken out of Article II of the Constitution, to take effect Nov. 21, 1896.

The Fourth General Court was held Dec. 19, 1896, at the Shoreham Hotel.

The Fifth General Court was held Dec. 20, 1897.

The Register for the Society was printed November 9, 1897.

In Memoriam.

24 Robert S. Green, died May 7, 1895.

1 William John Potts, died Nov. 18, 1895.

12 Clifford Stanley Sims, died March 3, 1896.

An inscrutable Providence having removed from the Society of Colonial Wars, in the State of New Jersey, a valued member and its late Chancellor, the Hon. Clifford Stanley Sims, D.C.L., it is with profound sorrow that the following minute is ordered to be placed on the records of the Society.

Judge Sims was a man of various gifts, having been at different times a sailor, a soldier, an author, a statesman, and a jurist.

He served his country with zeal during the late Civil War—first in the Navy and then in the U. S. Volunteers until taken a prisoner and paroled until the close of the war. In this latter branch of the U. S. service he attained the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel.

His service in the Legislature, and later as U.S. Consul at Ottawa, Canada, as well as his membership in a large number of representative bodies, all testify to the distinguished position that men were glad to accord him.

He was the President of the New Jersey State Society of the Cincinnati. A man so strong and vigorous in character, so fearless and outspoken as he was, he yet incurred the enmity of few and maintained the respect of all.

The Protestant Episcopal Church, of which he was a member, was glad of his voice and advice—honored him with a position in her great Triennial Councils—honored him the more because on one notable occasion he stood almost alone for conscience and right. Recalling even now his many noble qualities of mind and heart, and failing perhaps to devise the mysterious Providence that would take so useful a life in its prime, we are glad to be able to bring our warmest tribute of love and honor and say "Beati mortui qui in Domino Moriuntur."

SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS IN THE STATE OF VERMONT.

The Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Vermont was chartered Nov. 12, 1894, and incorporated under the State Laws Nov. 20, 1894. The first General Court was held at Montpelier, Nov. 20, 1894.

Previous to its Declaration of Independence, Vermont was claimed by New York and New Hampshire under charters issued by the Crown of England. Owing to lack of knowledge the grants lapped over each other, and said lands were surveyed, claimed and sold by the Royal Governors of New Hampshire and New York. The result was conflict of ownership among the settlers and demands for payment by both the Royal Governors. The settlers often answered these demands by flogging the emissaries sent to enforce them, which was called "The application of the Beach Seal." The controversies resulted in a declaration of complete independence. Vermont, therefore, cannot claim to have been a colony with established boundaries, and no Great Seal was authorized for her by the British Government. For these reasons it has seemed proper that the Great Seal of the Society should be a combination of those of New York and New Hampshire, including the date of the first white settlement at Dummerston, 1724, and the end of the Colonial period, 1775, also the "Beach Seal" of the "Green Mountain Boys" represented by the beach withs which bind the ribbon at the base.

The Great Seal of the Vermont Society of Colonial Wars is a ribbon of the order united at the base by beach withs, bearing a title scroll, "1724, Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Vermont, 1775," surrounding a diaper carrying a shield bearing the Colonial Seals of New York and New Hampshire joined surmounted of the crown.

SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS IN THE STATE OF ILLINOIS.

The Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Illinois was chartered by the State of Illinois on October 13, 1894, and by the General Society on November 12, 1894.

On December 7, 1894, a meeting was called by the incorporators, to be held at the Grand Pacific Hotel, Chicago, at which time a constitution and by-laws were adopted and officers chosen.

The first annual banquet was held at the Union League Club on the evening of December 19, 1894, the 219th anniversary of the Great Swamp fight.

Eligibility for election to membership in this Society is the same as that of the General Society, except legislative service unaccompanied by military record is not recognized.

The General Court is the only business meeting of the Society held during the year.

SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS IN THE STATE OF MISSOURI.

The Society or Colonial Wars in the State of Missouri was organized at St. Louis with twenty-four charter members, on November 22, 1894.

The Society adopted as the date for the General Court, October 10, which date commemorates the possession of Fort Chartres and the battle of Point Pleasant; for, by the Treaty of Paris, concluded February 10, 1763, the question which had been in doubt for a century, whether French or English civilization should rule this continent, was settled for all time. By this treaty Canada and that portion of Louisiana between the Alleghanies and the Mississippi came into possession of Great Britain.

Captain Stirling, with a company of the Forty-second Highlanders, came down the Ohio in boats from Fort Pitt, arriving early in October, 1765. On the tenth day of that month he relieved the French commander of Forth Chartres, St. Ange, who for some months had been under orders to give up the fort whenever a force of British came to relieve him. These were the first English troops who ever set foot in the Illinois country.

Fort Chartres, built by the French in 1720, was, in its time, the strongest fortress in America. Its ruins are on the left bank of the Mississippi River, in Randolph County, Illinois, fifty miles south of St. Louis, and sixteen miles northwest of Kaskaskia.

October 10, 1774, occurred the battle of Point Pleasant, at the junction of the Kanawha with the Ohio River.

Both these events were important colonial footsteps in the direction of the west.

SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS IN THE STATE OF OHIO.

The Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Ohio received its charter from the General Society at a meeting of the General Council, held at Baltimore, Md., on May 13, 1895. It was incorporated in the State of Ohio, May 29, 1895, and was organized in the city of Cincinnati, June 1, 1895.

The first Social Court of the Society was held in Cincinnati, December 19, 1895, the 220th anniversary of the Great Swamp Fight. The second Social Court was held in Cincinnati, December 10, 1896, the 143d anniversary of Washington's first expedition to the head waters of the Ohio River.

The Society has been informally entertained by its first Governor, the Hon. Samuel Furman Hunt, at Glendale, Ohio, on October 12, 1895, and by Governor Asa Smith Bushnell, of Ohio, and Dr. Henry Cipperly Dimond, at Springfield, Ohio, on March 25, 1897.

Annual General Courts and banquets have been held in Cincinnati on November 24th in commemoration of the capture of Fort Duquesne, at the head of the Ohio River, on November 24, 1758.

Eligibility for membership by descent from private soldiers who served subsequent to 1700 is not recognized by this Society. Otherwise the conditions of eligibility are those prescribed in the constitution of the General Society.

SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS IN THE STATE OF NEBRASKA.

The Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Nebraska was organized at Omaha, April 27, 1895, and was chartered by the General Society May 14, 1895.

The gentlemen present at the first meeting proceeded under the Statutes of Nebraska, to organize as an incorporated society; a constitution was adopted, and officers elected. A Special Court of this Society was held at the Commercial Club, Omaha, on the 220th anniversary of the Great Swamp Fight, December 19, 1895, at which Chancellor Goss read a most instructive monograph on that historical event.

SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS IN THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

The Society of Colonial Wars in the State of California was instituted in the United States Government Building at the City of Los Angeles on November 30, 1895, by nineteen gentlemen, and a Charter was granted by the General Society on December 19, 1895.

Eligibility for membership is the same as prescribed by Article II. of the Constitution of the General Society, except that collaterals are not admitted.

The first General Court and dinner were held at Los Angeles on March 7, 1896, at which time a permanent Code of By-Laws was adopted.

The time for holding the General Court is December 21, "Forefathers' Day."

The flag of this Society is argent, a cross of Saint George gules; an escutcheon or, bordered sable, charged with a grizzly bear, passant, proper, under the motto "Eureka."

The Great Seal is described as follows: viz:

Within a beaded annulet, a title scroll, "Society of Colonial Wars in the State of California, 1542–1775," surrounding a group of Colonial weapons; over all a shield Quarterly. I. and IV.: Gules a tower triple-towered, or (Castile). II. and III.: Argent, a lion rampant gules, crowned, or (Leon). Upon a chief of the last a grizzly bear, passant, proper, (California.)

In Memoriam

9 Harry Woodville Latham, died May 14, 1896.

Harry Woodville Latham was born in Lynchburg, Va., September 30, 1862, died in Pasadena, Cal., and was the son of George Woodville Latham, an officer of the staff of General Robert E. Lee during the War of the Rebellion, and Louise Caroline Calhoun, his wife, of Bridgeport, Conn.

His youth was passed in Bridgeport, whence he entered Yale College, from which he was graduated with the degree of A. B. in the class of 1883. He subsequently entered the Law School of Columbia College, and ultimately became associated professionally with the law firm of Seward, Griswold, Guthrie and Da Costa, of New-York.

In 1887, by reason of failing health, he went to California, locating at Los Angeles, where he commenced an active professional career, which terminated only with his death.

He was a zealous member of the California Society Sons of the Revolution, and upon the organization of the Society of Colonial Wars in the State of California, he was unanimously chosen the first Secretary.

His mother was daughter of the late Philo Calhoun, well known in New-York City as President of the Fourth National Bank.

Through his mother, Mr. Latham was descended from Captain Thomas Fitch, Captain David Sherman, Matthew Mitchell, Thomas Sherwood, Joseph Hawley and Samuel Sherman, ancestors distinguished in the early military and civil history of Connecticut.

GENERAL SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY GENERAL,

27 William Street, New-York City.

The undersigned having compiled the General Society Registers for 1894, 1895, 1896 and 1897-98, takes this opportunity of thanking the officers and members of the Society for their kind assistance and co-operation in preparing the vast amount of material necessary for such publications, and especially for this edition, the last to be issued by the present Secretary-General.

It is, of course, impossible to avoid all errors in such a task, but very few corrections have been reported to this office. It has been suggested that the references should be printed after each ancestor's name, but on account of space the idea was abandoned. The desired information may be obtained by applying to the Registrar General, giving the General Society number, or to the State Society Registrar, giving the State Society number.

The degree of descent is counted by including the member and excluding the ancestor through whom eligibility is claimed.

The matter relating to the various State Societies has been prepared by their officers, and the proofs corrected by them, so all correction of errors and notification of omissions should be sent to the Secretary-General, through the Secretaries of the State Societies, that changes may be noted by them. Members should also send all corrections to the Registrar of their State Society.

The Society is to be congratulated on an increase of 955 members, and upon the successful organization of seven new State Societies since the last Register was issued. Many State Societies have permanent headquarters, the nucleus of valuable libraries, and have erected interesting historical memorials. Members should take pride in their organization, which in rapid growth and successful organization, stands second to none in this country.

HOWLAND PELL,

March 19, 1898. Secretary-General.

To be erected at Lake George, by the New York Society. Contributions from those interested in the effort to erect this memorial, and particularly from the descendants of participants in the Battle, will be appreciated by the Committee.
